24. The Organizer makes a reservation that the materials provided by the Partner for the tailoring (creation) of the models described in § 3, items 20, 21 and 22 of the Terms and Conditions may differ in relation to the samples described in § 3, item 13 a) of the Terms and Conditions which may be associated with the fabrics' limited availability.
25. All costs, apart from the cost of the fabrics supplied by the Partner, described in § 3, items 20, 21 and 22 of the Terms and Conditions, associated with the participation in the Competition, including the costs associated with tailoring of the clothing/ silhouettes will be covered by the Competition's participants.

26. In case of the participant undertaking actions contrary to the Terms and Conditions, actions aimed at winning the Competition contrary to the common provisions of law or good practice, and also in case of:
- a) failure to tailor (create) within the deadline or tailoring (creation) contrary to the technical requirements of this Competition of 1 clothing model of a whole male or female profile by the Competition's finalists,
  - b) failure to tailor (create) within the deadline or tailoring (creation) contrary to the technical requirements of this Competition of 6 clothing models of whole male or female profiles by the Competition's winner
- the Organizer reserves the right to verify and exclude the participant from the Competition. In case of the participant's exclusion from the Competition, the participant will be obliged to return the received fabrics as well as to return the obtained award. The return of the received fabrics does not exclude the Organizer's right to pursue compensation from the participant on the basis of applicable law.

THE JURY AND ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

1. Finalists and winner of the Competition will be selected in voting by the Jury including:
  - a) Magdalena Płonka – CSR lecturer, Director of MSKPU, President of the Management Board of 'Em Pe Studio Design' Sp. z o.o. located in Warsaw,
  - b) Anna Sołtys – CSR expert and manager of LPP S.A. located in Gdańsk,
  - c) and between 2 and 12 other Jury members.
2. The main assessment criteria for the Competition's Entries will be:
  - a) artistic potential (0 to 5 points),
  - b) ethical and ecological qualities (0 to 5 points),
  - c) appropriate utilization of characteristics of the fabrics on the basis of which the eco collection designs will be prepared (0 to 5 points),
  - d) conversation with the Jury about the designs of the clothing described in § 3, item 5 a) of the Terms and Conditions (0 to 5 points).
3. The Jury will award points according to their own assessment. The Jury's decision is final and legally binding for all participants, which does not exclude the possibility of pursuing claims in court proceedings.
4. After adding up all the points, the Competition Entries will be organized from the highest to the lowest number of awarded points. 10 participants whose Entries receive the highest number of points will become the finalists. The subsequent places will be granted to participants whose Competition Entries subsequently receive the highest number of points in descending order. In case where more than one participant of the Competition receives the same number of points, the final decision concerning the organization of Competition Entries will be made by Magdalena Płonka.
5. The Jury, at the first stage of the Competition, will select Competition Entries of 10 finalists. The finalists will be informed about the Jury's decision by the Organizer via e-mail or telephone, and also in accordance with § 6 of the Terms and Conditions. Then, from amongst the 10 finalists, in accordance with the rules specified in § 4, items 2, 3 and 4 of the Terms and Conditions, winner of the Competition will be selected.

§ 5.

3. The Competition's Organizer reserves the right to publicly announce information about finalists and winner of the Competition, to which the participant consents by entering the Competition.

§ 7.

LICENCE

1. The Competition participants' Entries, including clothes models of whole male or female profiles tailored (created) by finalists and winner of the Competition, further referred to as the 'Competition Entry', may be used free of charge by the Organizer for, among others, information purposes and in promotion and advertising of the Competition's subsequent editions. At the time of receipt of a Competition Entry by the Competition's Organizer, the Competition's participant grants the Organizer a licence to use the competition Entry. If granting a licence proves impossible at the time described above, it will take place no later than at the time when the Competition's results are announced at the final and final stages of the Competition respectively, on the basis of the following conditions:

- 1) The Organizer acquires the right to use the Competition Entry, in all fields of use, especially in the following fields of use:
  - a) within the scope of recording and copying the Competition Entry – producing the Entry's copies using specific technology, including the printing and reprographic technology, magnetic recording and digital technology;
  - b) within the scope of disseminating the Competition Entry – public performance, exhibition, display, replay, broadcast and rebroadcast as well as public sharing of the Competition Entry in the way which makes it accessible by anybody at the place and time of their choice.
- 2) The participant declares that the author's economic rights including the copyrights dependent on the competition Entry are his or her exclusive rights, they are not burdened by any third party rights or claims and they are not subject to court or enforcement proceedings.
2. The Organizer, at the time of receipt of the Competition Entry acquires full and unlimited, with regards to territory, right to use the Competition Entry, in any way and at any time, regardless of the purpose of use in all fields of use, especially in the fields of use specified in § 7, item 1.1 of the Terms and Conditions.
3. The rights described in this paragraph may be executed by the Organizer with the use of all existing and possible future media and technologies, without any limitations in this regard.
4. The licence to use the Competition Entry by the Organizer is granted free of charge, which means that the Competition's participants are not entitled to receive remuneration for granting it.
5. The Competition's participant grants to the Organizer a non-exclusive licence for the Entries described in § 7, item 1 of the Terms and Conditions for a period of 5 years starting from the time of receipt of the Competition Entry, without the possibility of earlier termination. After that period, it is assumed that the licence is granted for an indefinite period of time with the possibility of a termination notice provided in writing under the pain of being declared null and void, with the 5-year notice period effective at the end of the year in which the declaration of intent to terminate the licence is submitted.

§ 8.

PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

1. The participants' personal data are subject to legal protection and are processed in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) ('GDPR') and in accordance with other valid legal provisions.
